A PROCLAMATION is in order from Mayor Barry. The people would like to know | Polk. what he proposes to do.

SINFIRE grows more interesting with each installment. If you are not reading it you are missing something good in the way of a story. THE live, wide-awake candidates, the men who are "in it" and are striving to get there, are regularly announced in Everysopy's looking to the announce ment columns of the News. They want to see and know just who the candidates are so they can make up their minds accordingly. THE Frankfort Capital under its new management has the fire and snap of a real live newspaper. We congratulate you Bro. Willis. You know a thing or two about running a good newspaper.

THERE are a few candidates out in the busnes yet. That is, they say they are candidates, but the general public don't know it. An announcement of the fact through the News is the only sure way of settling the matter.

A SPLENDID new pavement made of Cloverport brick now surrounds our capitol square at Hardinsburg. Who says it is not a valuable improvement and one of which every citizen of the county should be proud of?

THEY still keep up their old-stylebackwoods way of doing things down at Owensboro. The members of the city council never rise to their feet when addressing the Mayor. We do better than that here in this "one hoss" town.

HARDINSBURG voted for local option, and got Prohibition pure and simple. A man can't get liquor out there now on the prescription of a physician even. The druggists won't look at a prescription with the name of whiskey written upon it. It's a bad place to be snake bitten.

THE Alabama Delegation in Congress wants an amendment to the Wilson tariff bill providing for a duty of 40 cents per ton on iron and coal and 50 cents a 1,000 feet on rough lumber. They are in favor of an income tax and a duty of one cent a pound on sugar. They are also in favor of letting in cotton mill machinery

Mayon Barry will bring this town out of the ruts if you will give him half a chance. He'll not squander any funds either. The management of his own private affairs do not indicate that he spends money recklessly. He takes a pride in his home, he is economical, he pay you. is conservative in all his private affairs. Will Give $100.

A question asked with the desire of an answer from some one who may be interested. Why will our people pay to an agent from $25 to $50 more for an organ than they will pay a dealer at home, and from $75 to $150 more for a piano than they will for one at home? Now we will give $100 to any one, if we can't duplicate any piano or organ in less than any agent's cost. We will do what we say, and if you are afraid we will, don't answer above question but go pay to Mr. B. Big Bills & Bust. But we nean just what we say.

I never heard a word of "Stringency of the times" during the past holidays. Let us hope the popular topic, like the ballad, "After the Ball," has been worn thread bare, Let the "Lamentations of Jeremiah" be turned to the "Exultant songs of David." An optimist everytime to a pessimist,

I told you in the letter that never came of the handsome silver pitcher at Nevitt & Gough's, and about the guess cards. Last Friday the nuts in the jar were counted and the cards (four or five hundred) were compared. Several came within one or two of the number, but Mrs. J. L. Malin and Mrs. Jim Richardson guessed exactly and, of course, tied. Mrs Malin bought Mrs. Richardson out.

Early announcements for county offices are still in order. Our genial friend, Judge H. C. Rawlings will have opposition in our good-natured complacent neighbor, Mr. S. P. Woolfolk. The day following a recent entertainment here, I heard one of the guests say that these insignificant pensions cost of the hostess, "Why is it that Mrs. always says just the right thing to each one, why is it that she is so popular, so sweet, good and agreeable?" He then added, "I do wish there were more such women." I'll tell you the secret of her potent power, her irresistible charm. She's loving and self-sacrificing; she all this county at a cost from $15 to $150 doesn't harbor past grief, old repinings, or cherish unpleasant thoughts which make sepulchres of her soul and a cemetery for other people. She incites brain culture, studies heart gentleness, charity, graciousness and the enlargement of sense and feeling. She makes the most of all things agreeable and is a consistent

The ladies tried another "Aid Social" at Mrs. Mary Martin's last Friday night. Not as many as formerly came out, but a pleasant eve' anyhow Christ's miracle at the marriage in Cana, of Galilee, was one of the manifestations of His divinity. By His presence at this feast He would teach us that Christians may not condemn and avoid, but may hallow and purify occasions of social intercourse. When in doubt as to what occasions are proper, let it be those in which our Lord would not be a welcome guest. Let us act and appear as if we knew Him to be present, and then we shall be safe. I believe every dear woman and each they live a happy and prosperous life is young lady, so interested in those "Aids" felt like her blessed Lord and Master

We were all shocked and patited last Friday, when news came of the terrible actident to Mr. Bob Smith, of Wolf Creek. White driving a wagon loaded with fodder, the mules became frightened and ran off, throwing him to the ground, breaking his neck, and death was instantaneous. Mr. Smith has been twice married, his second wife who survives him, was Mrs. Cal Richardson, mother of our neighbor an I friend, Mrs. R. H. Nevitt. Thus, Mr. Smith was often here with his wife, and we all had known and esteemed him highly. His marriage to his most excellent wife has been singularly happy and peaceful, and to her our warmest sympathy goes out in this, her dark hour of bereavement. Mrs. Nevitt went immediately to be with her mother.

England or Germany to maintain their vast armies. The few scattering republicans of this precinct are much elated over their recent victory and think they will have a walkover at the next election. Consequently many of them expect to be in the scramble after the offices, and if every democrat will do his duty these Rads will become a sadder, but much wiser set of fellows.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks, my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
